Resounding Sound January 3, 2017 Suzi Armstrong

There is a sound around the throne of God, a sound that fills and saturates. It is the sound of God. It is the sound of the angels crying holy, holy, holy. It is a sound of life and a sound of victory. Heaven resounds the sound of God, and we are to resound the very same sound. Sara Tumminello shared with me that she heard God strike His tuning fork in heaven. When a tuning fork is struck it releases a sound or a vibration that serves as the standard. Then the sound of the tuning fork is re-sounded in you. Thus you become one with the sound that is the standard.

Hebrews 12.1-3

Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ² fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

³ For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

- We are surrounded, encircled and saturated with the sound of faith. It is the sound that says God is able and He has given me the ability to succeed in Him.
 - This is a sound, or a vibration that enters into my heart as I link to it.
 - Link and let that the sound of heaven resound in me. Lifting me out of the sound of the world, out of the sound of political correctness, out of the sound of indifference and boredom, out of the sound of overwhelmed, out of the sound of depression or anxiety, out of the sound of stress, the sound of offense, the sound of lack of confidence.
 - Resound means that I take on the sound of heaven as my sound. I re-sound the sound of heaven. My vibe is the vibe of heaven.
 - It is the sound that purifies. I see the sound of heaven in me like a big sifter. It finds and sifts out of me every sound that is not from heaven.
 - The sound of heaven enables me to throw off everything that hinders. What seemed like obstacles or objections disappear. They are replaced by the vibe of heaven.
 - I carry the vibe of heaven in me. It resonates in me. It becomes my vibration as I become one with the sound of heaven.
 - I'm reminded of how in the natural there are certain songs that I like so much that I want to turn them up loud, close my eyes and "get into them". This exactly what I am to do with the sound of heaven – turn it up loud, do not look to the left or the right. Get into it!
 - I can hear the sound, I can hear the sound, I can hear the sound. I can hear the sound of heaven and receive it, be filled with it and release it.
 - The sound of heaven is the sound of life. It is the sound of NOW. It is the sound of eternity. It is the sound that governs.
 - The sound of heaven releases the cadence I am to run to as I run the race set before me.
 - Fix my eyes in Jesus. He has the sound I want and the sound I follow. Every other sound is false.
 - Jesus followed the sound to completion. To the cross. The sound of shame did not overpower the sound He carried inside of Him.
 - There is strength in the sound heaven. It displaces the sound of weakness.

Definition of RESOUND

intransitive verb

1: to become filled with sound: REVERBERATE

2a: to sound loudly <the gunshot resounded> b: to become so filled with a sound to produce an echoing sound

3: to become renowned transitive verb

1: to extol loudly or widely: CELEBRATE

2: ECHO, REVERBERATE

3: to sound or utter in full resonant tones

I want to be so filled with the sound of heaven that it echoes and reverberates in every part of my being. In my cells, in my bones and muscles and joints, in my thoughts and attitudes, in my beliefs, in my language spoken and unspoken.

Job 37.2

² Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice, to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

Habakkuk 2.1-3

I will stand on my guard post

And station myself on the rampart;

And I will keep watch to see what He will speak to me,

And how I may reply when I am reproved.

² Then the LORD answered me and said,

"Record the vision

And inscribe it on tablets,

That the one who reads it may run.

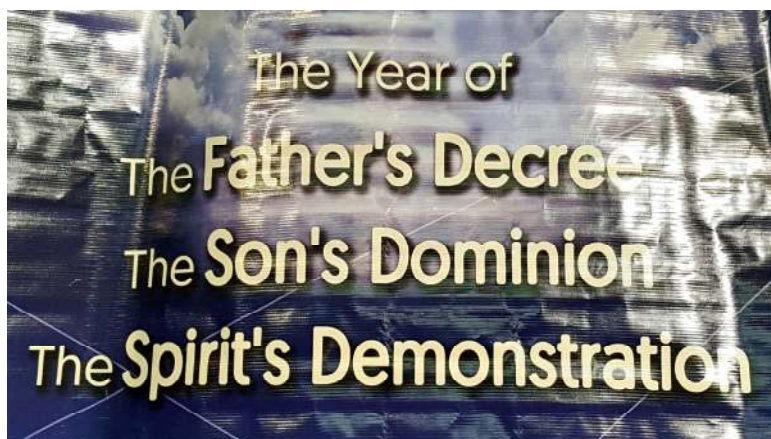

³ "For the vision is yet for the appointed time;

It hastens toward the goal and it will not fail.

Though it tarries, wait for it;

For it will certainly come, it will not delay.

- There is a place we position ourselves to hear the sound of heaven. It is an attitude of the heart. It is a place of faith – knowing that God is speaking and that He made us to hear what He is speaking.
- After you have heard the sound – then you can run.

For several weeks now, Christina Wilson has been hearing the sound of heaven in an unusual way. Holy Spirit has been speaking to her through acronyms. She has been sharing those acronyms with me. This morning Christina texted me saying: "Hi Suzi, I woke up out of my sleep around 3am with the word 'aroma'".

- A Aroma – God manifests through us a sweet aroma in the knowledge of Him in every place. 2 Cor. 2.14.
- R Reality – for as many as are the promises of God, in Him they are yes. Through Him is our Amen to the glory of God through us. 2 Cor 1.20.
- O Obtain – God has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them we become partakers of His divine nature. 2 Pet 2.4.
- M More – the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold, even though tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet 1.7.
- A Access – says the Lord of Hosts, if you will walk in My ways, keep My words, I will give you access to My presence. Zech 3.7.

This all started with Christina on December 20th when Holy Spirit woke her up at 5am and gave her this:

- C Christ in you.
- H Hope of glory.
- R Rejoice in your.
- I Identity in Jesus!
- S Salvation is for ALL.
- T Timeless is His Word.
- M Magnificent God.
- A Amazing KING!
- S Strong in the Lord and in the power of His might!

There is a sound being released from heaven that we can hear and that we can be filled with and re-sound into our family, our neighborhood, with our friends, into the highways and byways of our life. We were made to hear the sound and release the sound of God.

Matthew 4.3-4

³ And the tempter came and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." ⁴ But He answered and said, "It is written, 'MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE, BUT ON EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDS OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.'"

- The tempter came and said... The devil releases a sound that is contrary to the sound of God.
- Answer the sound of the devil with the sound of truth. It is written...
- The sound that you align with is your governing sound. It is the sound you walk by, think by and live by.

There is a sound on the streets in Detroit. There is a sound in the boardrooms of the businesses in Detroit. There is a sound being released by the media in Detroit. There is a sound in the schoolrooms of Detroit. There is a sound in the stadiums. There is a sound in Dearborn. There is a sound in Hamtramck. There is a sound in Farmington. There is a sound in Troy. There is a sound in Novi and Southfield and Allen Park, Taylor and Rochester Hills. We carry a sound – the sound of the Kingdom of God – Christ in us the hope of glory. That sound carries the aroma of God, the government of God, the life of God. It is the sound of liberty. It is the sound that we re-sound into the earth, into Detroit, the boardrooms, the schools, the suburbs, and the streets.

Psalm 18.3

The Lord thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

Acts 2.2

And suddenly there came from heaven a noise [sound] like a violent rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

Genesis 3.8

They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

Proverbs 20.12

The hearing ear and the seeing eye, The Lord has made both of them.

Matthew 11.15

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

From Don Donnelley:

Take hold of the promises and do not accept the words of the enemy which are designed to destroy. The enemy voice says that I am trapped in a spider's web and the more I struggle the deeper I am entrapped.

It says "Just lie still. Agree to take the hopelessness and despair. Let depression paralyze the pain." THOSE WORDS ARE LIES!

I have been granted the power to be more than a conqueror and no web or snare can imprison me. Today I rise and burn through the nets with the fire He places inside me in His presence.
